American Association for the History of Medicine
The American Association for the History of Medicine invites submissions in any area of medical history for its 77th annual meeting, to be held in Madison, Wisconsin, 29 April - 2 May 2004. The Association welcomes papers on topics related to the history of health and healing; of medical ideas, practices, and institutions; and of illness, disease, and public health, from all eras and regions of the world. In addition to single-paper proposals, the program committee welcomes proposals for sessions and luncheon workshops; individual papers for those sessions will be judged on their own merits.

All papers must represent original work not already published or in press. Because the Bulletin of the History of Medicine is the official journal of the AAHM, the Association encourages speakers to make their manuscripts available for consideration by the Bulletin.

Please send eight copies of a one-page abstract (350 words maximum) to the Program Committee Co-Chair, Barron H. Lerner, M.D., Ph.D., Columbia University, 630 West 168th Street, Box 11, New York, NY 10032-3702. Abstracts should clearly state findings and conclusions as well as research questions. They should also provide the following information on the same sheet: name, preferred mailing address, work and home telephone numbers, e-mail address, present institutional affiliation, and academic degrees. Abstracts must be received by 15 September 2003. E-mail or faxed proposals will not be accepted. Notification of acceptance will be sent out no later than December 15th.

Small travel grants are available for independent scholars, graduate students, and people traveling from abroad. To apply please see the following website: http://www.histmed.org/Travelgrantapplication.htm

The Council for the Development of Social Science Research in Africa (CODESRIA) is celebrating its 30th anniversary this year. It will be recalled that the Council was established in 1973 out of the collective will of African social researchers to create a viable forum in Africa through which they could strive to transcend all barriers to knowledge production and, in so doing, play a critical role in the democratic development of the continent. As part of the series of events planned to mark the anniversary, five sub-regional conferences are being organized in Central, East, North, Southern and West Africa. These sub-regional conferences will be followed by a grand finale conference to be held at the Council's headquarters in Dakar, Senegal, in December 2003. The Central Africa sub-regional conference will take place in Douala, Cameroon, on 4 and 5 October, 2003. The theme of the conference will be: "Central Africa: Crises, Reform and Reconstruction."

Researchers interested in participating in the conference are invited to submit abstracts of their papers to the CODESRIA Secretariat by 15 August, 2003. The authors of abstracts selected will be notified by 20 August, 2003 and they will be expected to send in their full papers by 20 September, 2003. All abstracts and full papers should be addressed by post, e-mail or fax to: Ms. Ndèye Sokhna Gueye; CODESRIA 30th Anniversary; Central Africa Conference; P.O. Box 3304; Dakar-Senegal; Tel: +221 – 825 98 22/23; Fax: +221 – 824 12 89; E-mail: ndeye.gueye@codesria.sn

The David C. Driskell Center for the Study of the African Diaspora at the University of Maryland invites applications for a postdoctoral fellowship for the 2004-05 academic year. The ten-month fellowship provides a stipend of $45,000. Two fellowships will be awarded. Applicants should be working on projects that address aspects of the African Diaspora, understood in the broadest sense. The Center is particularly interested in inter- and multi-disciplinary studies that bridge the disciplines of the humanities, performing and visual arts, and social sciences. The Center especially welcomes applications from artists and art historians. Fellows will offer one course—topic, level, and structure—of their choice. Letters of interest are due December 8, 2003, and final applications are due January 5, 2004.

For further information, visit the website or contact the David C. Driskell Center for the Study of the African Diaspora, 2114 Tawes Fine Arts Building, University of Maryland, College Park, MD 20742-1211, USA, Attn: Postdoctoral Fellowships Committee. Email: driskellcenter@umail.umd.edu. www: http://www.driskellcenter.umd.edu/grants.

The University of Maryland is an AA/EOE institution, and welcomes applications from minorities and women.

The Department of Religion at Wesleyan University invites applications for a tenure-track appointment as Assistant Professor of Religion and Society.

We are seeking historians of religion, anthropologists, philosophers, or sociologists of religion who combine social scientific training with historical and textual studies of religious cultures and traditions. We will be interested in the ways that the candidate's fieldwork experience shapes and is shaped by theory and method. We are open to persons doing specialized research in any region, period, or tradition. The successful candidate will be expected to have Ph.D. in hand, or very near to completion, at the time of the appointment and to teach the Department's "Introduction to the Study of Religion" and "Majors Colloquium in Religious Studies" on a rotating basis.

Applications should include a curriculum vitae, at least three letters of recommendation, and samples of scholarship. Preference will be given to applications received by October 31, 2003. Preliminary interviews may be conducted at professional meetings this fall.

Applications should be sent to Professor Ron Cameron, Chair, Search Committee, Religion Department, Wesleyan University, Middletown, CT 06459. AA/EOE. Women and minorities are strongly encouraged to apply.
